EXPERIENCE

Frontend web developer intern

Cloudcredits Technologies   August 2024 - September 2024, Remote

- Developed interactive user interfaces using React.js, enhancing user engagement by 30% through improved page responsiveness and intuitive design layouts.
- Developed my own portfolio project that show my skills by utilizing HTML, CSS, and JavaScript to create dynamic web pages, demonstrating proficiency in modern web design practices and gaining hands-on experience in responsive web development.
- Developed the online physical training Web site where people can register & do exercise through the videos.

PROJECTS

Facial Recognition System

My own project • github.com/sfaizanak/faceRecon.git • March 2024 - March 2024

- Dive into the future of security and convenience with my cutting-edge Face Recognition Web Application.
- Designed using Django and powered by advanced machine learning algorithms, this application seamlessly identifies and verifies faces in real-time.
- It's an innovative blend of technology and functionality, ideal for enhancing security systems, automating attendance tracking, or adding an extra layer of verification to any platform. From detecting facial features with precision to ensuring data privacy and security, this project showcases the power of AI-driven solutions in solving real-world problems.
- This application proudly presented at a national-level competition at IIT Bombay, demonstrating its potential to shape the future of smart applications.
